together we can

Taking Part, Advocacy Services for people with learning difficulties working in partnership with Telford College of Arts & Technology and Shropshire Youth Services

TAKING PART will be central to the roll out of the Governments' proposed changes to benefits for people in Shropshire who require support, care and services from 2011.

Personalisation will have a great impact upon people's choice and control and to support individuals to work towards independence with confidence, Taking Part is forming a Transition Peer Advocacy Team.

Explore, create, perform, present, appreciate, applaud and review using performance to tell our stories.

Healthy relationships; the rights, roles and responsibilities. Being safe in the community

Explore issues relating to bullying, speaking up for others, presenting to groups, interview skills, plan and organize events.

Accessing our community safely, time keeping and travel training.

Beginning 18th September at DASH, Hartley Business
Centre, Shrewsbury SY2 5ST

The team will be supported by Jennie Kinsey,
Julie Watson & Dan Smith

Together we will work to create a Performance group to share our hopes and dreams

Together we will become confident, speaking up for others less able, know our rights, stay safe
