

Jamila Walker Thomas

Original Role – Support Worker

Current Role - Taking Part Project Ordinator and Project Co Ordinator

I plan and delivery ‘Taking Part presents Escape club nights’, which are a bi monthly social and music night at the Hive in Shrewsbury for adults with SEND

I also plan and deliver a bi monthly fun sessions for SEND families at the Mereside community centre, Shrewsbury. Our sessions which are called ‘Moving and Grooving’ are focused on the outdoors and creativity.

I am currently the guest editor of the ‘Rainbow Times’ newsletter, a monthly newsletter that showcases the wonderful activities and people that attend Shropshire council day centres. The newsletter is part of the ‘Good things to do at home’ project.

I design and create original content – like resource sheets for social media and the ‘Rainbow Times’

I managed the Good things to do at home Facebook page as well as co-manage the ‘Moving and Grooving carers and parents’ private Facebook page and the ‘Taking Part’ Facebook page.

I am a freelance visual artist. I have created various illustrative and photographic artwork for Taking Part.

The work that I do for Taking Part is fun, varied, very and most importantly collaborative as well as challenging at times.
